(consolidated cases)

vs.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Defendant

SUGGESTION OF DEATH UPON THE RECORD

COMES NOW, undersigned counsel for Plaintiff GUADALUPE RODRIGUEZ and hereby suggests upon the record, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 25, that Plaintiff Guadalupe Rodriguez unfortunately died on Wednesday, January 20, 2021 during the pendency of this action.

Plaintiff Guadalupe Rodriguez, a loving mother who tragically lost her son Richard C. Rodriguez on November 5, 2017, unfortunately passed away on January 20, 2021 after three years of suffering emotional trauma and mourning the tragic death of her son. Despite suffering a tremendous loss of companionship and society, pecuniary loss, and experiencing emotional pain, torment, and suffering as a result of the tragic loss of her son, her wrongful death claims has been shattered by delay. Tragically, the delay of this matter has prevented both biological parents of Richard C. Rodriguez, Deceased from obtaining justice on their individual wrongful death claims.

Guadalupe Rodriguez, just as her husband, was a kind, compassionate, and loving mother, spouse, grandparent, and great grandparent, that soldiered on confident this Court would right the wrong of the Government's neglect.

Sadly, her march for justice ended on January 20, 2021, over three years of waiting for her day in court. As counsel previously conveyed in open Court during a prior hearing so very long ago, and more recently in the Suggestion of Death of Jose Rodriguez (Document Number 326), “justice delayed is justice denied”. Counsel again prays that the Court take notice of another unfortunate tragedy and denial of justice and diligently conclude the trial of this matter before another victim of the Government’s neglect is denied justice.

Respectfully Submitted,
